

A HOW-TO GUIDE FOR

Breakthrough Prayer

with prayer points

Paul Israel

@thekingdommarriagemodel

NICE TO MEET YOU!

Hi! I'm Paul Israel

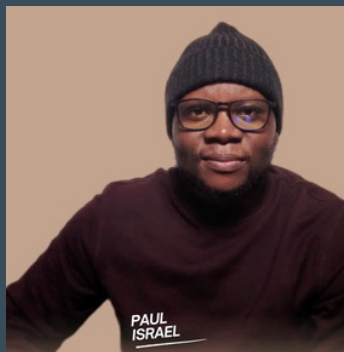

I am your breakthrough prayer coach. Every challenge is an opportunity for growth, and together, we will pray until we win. As we embark on this journey, I want to remind you of James 5:16, which tells us that 'the prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.' With this truth in mind, we will unleash the power of fervent prayer to create lasting change in our lives.

Prayer is not just a routine; it is a profound dialogue with God that transforms our circumstances. In our time together, we will draw inspiration from Philippians 4:6-7: 'Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.' This verse encourages us to bring everything to God, knowing He cares deeply for us.

I am here to guide you through targeted prayers, helping you overcome any obstacles that stand in your way. Whether you seek healing, direction, or clarity, we will call on God's promises and stand firm in our faith. Remember, Romans 8:28 assures us that 'in all things, God works for the good of those who love him.'

I am so glad I am able to put this resource in your hands, whether you are on a one day fast and prayer or 21 days, you can still use the prayer points to fine tune your targets.

You do not have to face your challenges alone. Together, we will break through barriers and shift the atmosphere around us with our prayers. Get ready to experience the miraculous power of prayer as we move toward your breakthroughs. I am excited to walk alongside you on this transformative journey!

PART ONE

Breaking the 'Almost' spirit

What is the spirit of 'almost'?

In one of his letters to the Corinthians, Paul stated: "For a great and effective door has been opened to me, and there are many adversaries" (1 Cor. 16:9). If Paul had only mentioned, "For a great and effective door has been opened to me," we would have every reason to rejoice. However, he continued with, "and there are many adversaries."

This illustrates the conflict at the brink of breakthrough. The door Paul referred to was significant, not just any ordinary door. As soon as the adversaries recognized it was open, they rushed in to block him, attempting to prevent his progress toward breakthrough. We stand on the verge of a breakthrough—will you step through? You have all faced challenges to reach this moment. Will we trust the Holy Spirit to guide you into your destiny, or will you hesitate and merely test the waters?

Phil. 3:8-14 invites us to consider a place called Kadesh Barnea. In the Bible, names of people and locations often hold deep spiritual significance. Kadesh Barnea served as a crucial stop for the Israelites on their journey to the Promised Land. Like an oasis provides rest during a journey, Kadesh Barnea was a pivotal point for the people of God. However, Kadesh Barnea also represents a retreat at the edge of the Promised Land, symbolizing a negative turning point. We have learned that there is often conflict just before a breakthrough.

Geographically, the journey from Horeb, the mountain of God, to Kadesh Barnea was only an eleven-day trek. The divine presence experienced at Horeb was intended to strengthen the Israelites' faith to enter the Promised Land. Yet, at Kadesh Barnea, the incredible encounter with God was merely eleven days behind them. Canaan was just two days away from Kadesh Barnea. Between the Promised Land and Horeb lay the forces of failure that attacked just as success was within reach, causing the Israelites to retreat from a destination so near. This journey is recounted in Deuteronomy 1. They had traveled for eleven days with only two more remaining to reach their goal. After enduring such a demanding journey from Egypt, just two days from entering their rest—what went wrong? God's chosen people wavered, failed, and succumbed to despair. The spirit of Kadesh Barnea was at work.

Prevailing In Prayer

You may have poured your effort into a project, pursued your studies until graduation, or prayed earnestly, almost reaching your desired outcome. You might have waited patiently, only to find something unforeseen derails you, leading you to abandon your efforts, your career, or your prayers. This is the influence of the spirit of Kadesh Barnea, causing individuals to miss their blessings just as they are about to receive them. Instead of experiencing a miracle, opposition steps in and takes control.

This spirit worked relentlessly against the Israelites, even the powerful encouragement from Moses, a mighty servant of God, fell on deaf ears. Will this happen to us? Many people harden their hearts under the assault of this spirit. When facing such challenges, no words from others or servants of God can uplift them; they simply wish to give up on their careers, jobs, or projects at the brink of their breakthroughs.' 1:40, 45-46 states: "But as for you, turn back and head toward the wilderness along the route to the Red Sea... You returned and wept before the LORD, but he did not listen to your weeping or pay attention to you. And so, you remained at Kadesh for a long time—all the days you spent there.

READ THE FOLLOWING PSALMS BEFORE YOU PRAY

Psalm 18

Psalm 34 & 35

Psalm 51

Psalm 91

It should go without saying that before you Pray, you need to set our heart right with The Lord. Go before God and ask Him to reveal to you any known or unknown sin in your life. Confess your sins and repent. Any sin that you harbor stands in the way of your breakthrough and gives the enemy legal right to condemn you. Any confessed and repented sin is wiped away from your record by the blood of Jesus Christ

Because of your faith,
it will happen.

Matthew 9:29

"Don't worry about anything;
instead, pray about everything. Tell
God what you need, and thank him
for all he has done."

PART TWO

WHAT IS THE SPIRIT OF KADESH BARNEA IN YOUR LIFE?

It is when you cannot point to anything tangible you have achieved with your life.

It is when you stand at crossroads, not knowing what to do or where to turn.

It is staying at a satanic bus stop meaning staying where you are. Your life is the same now as it was last year; it is like you are drifting in the ocean of life.

With fervor and urgency in your heart, pray. With a sincere heart before the Lord, you will discover the secrets you ought to know about your life. With sincerity in your heart, He easily reveals secrets to you. In your dreams, He will show you the operation of the spirit of Kadesh Barnea against your life.

When you begin to dream:

You are going back to your primary school,

You are going back to the old house you once lived,

You are wearing old clothes you used to wear when you were young

if you are going back to your birthplace

or, if you see yourself playing with your kindergarten playmates

This signals that there is something, some evil spirit that wants to return you to the beginning of the journey of life, all over again. — It is the spirit of Kadesh Barnea
If you

See yourself climbing a mountain and yet not going anywhere

Find yourself in a particular place or building you really don't know in the physical world.

Find yourself in a particular place or building you really don't know in the physical world.

Experience a dream taking some exams (repeat) you had already passed years ago,

if you see yourself in your former primary and secondary schools

You must declare war on the powers that are hindering you.
